2007 Evaluation #16

- College accommodations were fine.
- The pace of the conference was excellent. Sessions were strictly informative. Balance would have been nice.
- Overall rating of On-site Organization was good.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was good.

2007 Evaluation #17

- College accommodations were wonderful and certainly added to the overall Oxford experience.
- The pace of the conference was good for the most part, having two cancellations made it difficult to fill at the last minute.
- The Round Table was hard to rate one single item: the comradary of meeting people experiencing similar problems and successes was wonderful, the OXFORD experience was incredible (from living on campus, seeing the town and the other colleges, etc.), and the information gleaned from the presentations was also wonderful.
- Overall rating of On-site Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #18

- The general clarity of the invitation was excellent.
- Information for my Institution was excellent.
- The Round Table academic theme was excellent.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was excellent.
- The Round Table format was excellent.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was excellent.
- The presentations were very informative.
- The discussion sessions I enjoyed most after the sessions and the final banquet.
- The opportunity to discuss academic ideas and concepts: Reduce the number of presenters in order to lengthen the time for individual presentations and discussion.
- College accommodations were excellent.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was very good.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #19

- The general clarity of the invitation was excellent. There was no question about the content of the ORT, although there was some question about how it was that you came to invite me. This was a question that many people had.
- Information for my Institution was excellent.
- The Round Table academic theme was more than sufficient. Merely mentioning “a conference at Oxford” was sufficient to convince my supervisors that my time and the institution’s money would be well spent.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was excellent.
- The Round Table format was very well done. I suggest a little more time for discussion after each presentation, but I realize that’s a function of the number of presentations. As it was, off-agenda discussions were extremely valuable.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was excellent.
- The presentations were mixed, but generally of high quality. A few people presented well outside their areas of expertise, but I think these, too, were useful for stimulating discussions, both formal and informal.
- College accommodations were surprisingly good. I had some reservations about “dormitory living” during the conference, but my accommodations were more than satisfactory. The fact that I was at Oxford went very far in making up for a dormitory room, but even without that the room would have been satisfactory as such rooms go.
- The agenda provided was very good. A bit more time to discuss each presentation would have been better, I think, but that would have required fewer presentations. In retrospect, I think more presentations were the better choice; discussion occurred off-agenda and was probably as productive and enjoyable as the formal sessions.
- The pace of the conference was excellent.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #20

- College accommodations were satisfactory.
- The agenda provided was excellent.
- The pace of the conference was very fast, but the only option.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.
