

Oxford Round Table Evaluation Centre

2007 Evaluation #31

- College accommodations were good.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was good.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.
- Informal sessions and the sharing with other delegates after the presentations were the keys to the conference's success.

2007 Evaluation #32

- College accommodations were adequate.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was too many sessions – fewer sessions with longer discussion periods.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.
- My favorite experiences during the Round Table: dinner/evening sessions; walking to and from Oxford Union; presenting; getting to know the participants. It was all good; well-structured; friendly on-site staff. Facilitator was wonderful.

2007 Evaluation #33

- College accommodations were disappointing. I was assigned to Lincoln Building across from the college. All other participants were assigned rooms in the College..
- The formal academic pace of the conference was good, but more time for discussion was needed.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was good.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #34

- College accommodations were outstanding – a great experience.
 - The formal academic pace of the conference was excellent.
 - Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
 - Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.
 - I enjoyed meeting and learning from such wonderful people and seeing Oxford from inside out.

2007 Evaluation #35

- The Round Table format led to some very rich conversations both in the meetings and also during social events.
- The presentations were varied and very interesting.
- The opportunity to discuss academic ideas and concepts led to some very rich conversations both in the meetings and also during social events.
- College accommodations were great.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was good. The open afternoons allowed for time to process the information from the a.m. meetings.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent. I felt that the whole week was well balanced. The combination of presentations, formal discussion, informal discussions over dinner, and walking tours kept me alert and engaged with the topics.

2007 Evaluation #36

- The Round Table format was too crowded. Use fewer presentations (none at night) with more discussion. The night session would be perfect for additional discussion with guiding questions.
- College accommodations were okay overall, but the bathroom conditions were poor. Our floor had no shower at all and the tub wouldn't hold water.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was good.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #37

- The opportunity to present your ideas were at breakfast, lunch, dinner and receptions.
- The presentations were informative – some more than others but I learned quite a bit.
- The discussion sessions were: I loved the discussions after each presentation.
- College accommodations need to be improved: The mixing of the hot and cold water in the sink in the room which I occupied was bad. No elevator – had to lift suitcases down many flight of stairs.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was excellent.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was good.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was good.

2007 Evaluation #38

- The Round Table format was varied and interesting – I loved the mix of scholarly presentations and social opportunities to share ideas and get to know one another.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was limited, but sufficient, as there was ample time to chat during the remainder of the session breaks and during meals and tours and free time.
- The presentations were highly informative, stimulating and wonderfully varied.
- The formality during the Round Table was just the right amount to make it special and unique as a professional experience. The champagne receptions before dinner each night and the final banquet were just the right touch.
- The informality during the Round Table was just enough to make it fun and comfortable, yet still very professional.
- College accommodations were comfortable, but I would have much preferred to have a shower than only a tub.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was busy yet not overly crammed with too much to do. The Round Table was honestly one of the very best professional opportunities I have ever participated in!
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #39

- College accommodations were very good.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was excellent.
- The strong point of the conference was the interactions with my fellow members of the Round Table.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #40

- The general clarity of the invitation was good -- thought at first it was a hoax!!
- The Round Table academic theme was Evolution and Theology, Seeking Common Ground.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was fair.
- The Round Table format was excellent.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was good.
- The presentations were good.
